

Luís Trigo Carrazedo

Partner

+351 213 845 220

carrazedo@carrazedo.com

<https://www.pmcm.pt/>

Founding and managing partner of the Angolan Law Firm Carrazedo & Pascoal, specializing in international business legal advice, with a special focus on Portuguese-speaking markets. Personal legal advisor for private clients, mainly Ultra and High-net-worth individual, for more than 20 years, with special focus in international business operations, Real estate investments and Intellectual property rights.

Degree in Law | Master level by School of Law of the Lisbon International University , attend Post-Graduation in Tax Law at IDEFF of the School of Law of the University of Lisbon.

Lawyer registered at the Angolan Bar Association and has been a legal advisor for over 20 years, mainly to high net worth private clients, with a special focus on international business operations, investments, financial operations and intellectual property rights.

Currently he's a member of the Board of Directors of European and African companies, in a wide range of areas from communication and international trade, banking and finance.

Throughout his professional curriculum he has provided numerous legal services to companies and individuals in different areas such as corporate, finance, employment, M&A, private investment, IT privacy, data protection and cybersecurity.

Luís Trigo Carrazedo regularly participates as a speaker in seminars and conferences related to investment in Angola, in addition to his active participation in the publication of articles on the legal structure of Angola.

practice areas

- Corporate Law
- Finance
- Labour
- M&A
- Private Investment
- IT Privacy Data Protection
- Cybersecurity

fluent in

- Portuguese
- English
- Spanish
- Italian